home in Thomaston Tuesday night from a complication of diseases. He represented the town in the lower house of the general assembly in 1869. His son is cashier of the Thomaston National bank.

Grand Opera House.

A good sized audience witnessed the performance of "From Sire to Son," by Milton Nobles and company at the Grand Opera house last evening. The play is from the pen of Mr. Nobles, who takes the leading part and is supported by a very good company. The story of the play centers around the life of one "John Oakley," who is falsely accused of murder and is unable to clear himself, as his vocal cords are paralyzed for a short time by the shock, but he ultimately recovers and seeks out the real villain.

In the comedy part Mr. Locke as "Dr. Mandrake" did well, as did also Mr. Courtenay in representing the doctor's son. Mr. Ready as "Grimes" was worthy of notice. There were several very effective and exciting situations in the course of the play.

The performance will be repeated this evening, when the company close their engagement here.

TWELFTH ANNUAL CONVENTION.

Woman's Relief Corps, Department of Connecticut.

Mystic, March 6.—The twelfth annual convention of the Woman's Relief corps of the department of Connecticut was opened in the Union Baptist church in this place at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The session was to have opened at 1 o'clock, but the non-arrival of many delegates caused a delay in the opening of the business. The church was decorated with flags and bunting, and over the platform was in fern "Welcome." The church was filled with delegates, and the galleries of the church were also crowded with visitors. Mrs. Charlotte E. Wright, department president, presided at this afternoon's session of the convention, and on the platform with her were Mrs. Florence Hayden of Meriden, senior vice president; Mrs. Hannah Barber of Torrington; and Miss Louise Tufts of Mystic.

There were aides as follows: Mrs. Hannah Grant of Mystic, Lizzie Young of New Haven, Mrs. Minnie Richards, the department chaplain, was detained at her home in Unionville by illness, and Mrs. John H. J. Bodge of Hartford acted as chaplain. The convention was opened with prayer and devotional exercises, conducted by Mrs. Bodge. The address of welcome to the delegates was made by Mrs. Charles C. Parker of this place, and Mrs. Hayden of Meriden responded. The annual report of the president, Mrs. Wright, was then read and showed that there were 2,696 members in the Connecticut department of the Woman's Relief Corps. One hundred and forty-eight new members were added to the organization last year. Reports were also made of the work of inspection and fund-raising. The president, Mrs. Wright, was then read and showed that there were 2,696 members in the Connecticut department of the Woman's Relief Corps. One hundred and forty-eight new members were added to the organization last year. Reports were also made of the work of inspection and fund-raising.

The treasurer showed that there was $500 in the general fund and $90 remained in the relief fund. After the formal business of the session was finished this afternoon a crayon portrait was presented to the department president, Mrs. Charlotte E. Wright of New Haven, of her daughter, Adelle, who died recently. The presentation was made by Williams post of this place.

At 5 o'clock this evening an executive session was held. This evening there was a public reception in the opera house here. Addresses were made by John M. Brewer of Norwich, department commander of the G. A. R., and A. J. McKee of Middletown, senior vice commander of the G. A. R. of Connecticut.

There were 500 people present at the reception. The public school children of this place participated in the exercises during the evening. Rev. D. H. Miller, ex-chaplain of the state department of the G. A. R., and Mrs. Jennie E. W. Smith of Windsor, also addressed the delegates. To-morrow the convention will continue its business and elect officers. It is probable that the convention will continue until Friday in order to finish up all the business there is on hand.

The town was in holiday attire, and many of the stores in the town were closed.

A NOTED GYPSY DEAD.

Prince William, Believed to be the Head of the Romany Gypsies in America.

Hartford, March 6.—Prince Williams, the best known Gypsy in this country and believed to be the head of the Romany Gypsies in this country, died at his home in East Hartford last night of Bright's disease.

Williams was born in Devonshire, England, in 1830. When sixteen years old he married a girl who was fourteen. They have had fourteen children, many of whom are scattered in different parts of the country. Two of the children were born in England. The Prince had made many tours with his picturesque wagons and was a noted judge of horsemanship.

During the Civil war he was stationed at Buffalo, N. Y., where he bought horses for the government. While so employed, he bought a residence in Canada, and established a temporary home there for his family and in company with his brother, who is now located in Bridgeport, Conn., established a sale stable at Montreal, Can. During the first ten years of his American citizenship, Mr. Williams spent the most of his time in travelling through the southern states, where he became well known among horsemen and plantation owners.

He was a veterinary surgeon of the School of Keene Observation, and was recognized as the highest authority upon the qualities, breeding and consequent value of a horse. He leaves a fortune which is estimated at from $40,000 to $50,000. He was generous to the poor, sometimes to excess, and is said never to have refused a poor man aid. Arrangements for the funeral have not as yet been completed, owing to the absence of several relatives. The three sons, Richard, Becher and Noah, will conduct the business left by the father.

Mrs. Bunce Recovering.

The many friends of Mrs. R. J. Bunce, wife of Sheriff Bunce, will be pleased to learn that she is recovering from an illness of four months.

Death of Mrs. Anna D. Maher.

Mrs. Anna D. Maher, wife of Daniel Maher, died suddenly of heart disease yesterday at her home, 127 Portsea street. She was sixty-two years old and a sister-in-law of Major Patrick Maher.
